

Online Job Resources and Self-Assessments

Online Job Search

These websites include career profiles and advertised positions. There are also many career websites dedicated to particular industries. If you cannot find information about careers of interest to you, try Google searches.

www.hotjobs.net.au/

www.maroochy.qld.gov.au

www.caloundra.qld.gov.au

Online Graduate Recruitment

www.graduateopportunities.com

www.noosa.qld.gov.au

www.graduatecareers.com.au

www.brisbane.qld.gov.au

www.jobsearch.gov.au (Graduate Links)

www.caboolture.qld.gov.au

www.qcross.org.au

Online Career Sites

www.myfuture.edu.au

www.careersonline.com.au

www.jobjuice.gov.au

www.gradsonline.com.au

Online Self-Assessments

Below are some links to online self-assessment tests. The tests vary in quality, complexity and style and while some are free, others may require a fee.

Online Government Job Search

QLD: www.jobs.qld.gov.au

NSW: www.jobs.nsw.gov.au

NT: www.nt.gov.au

SA: www.ocpe.sa.gov.au

TAS: www.jobs.tas.gov.au

VIC: www.jobs.vic.gov.au

WA: www.jobs.wa.gov.au

www.myfuture.edu.au – My Guide

You will answer questions, explore career suggestions made by myfuture, select career favourites, clarify your career direction, and then, create an action plan to help you reach your career goals.

Online Job Search Sites

USC CareerHub:

<http://careerhub.usc.edu.au>

www.careerone.com.au

www.seek.com

<http://mycareer.com.au>

www.jobsearch.gov.au

www.worksearch.com.au

www.sunshinecoastjobs.com.au

www.linkme.com.au

Federal Government

www.psagazetteonline.gov.au

www.jobsearch.gov.au (Graduate Links)

www.careerkey.org - Learn More about Yourself

You want to choose an occupation that fits your unique qualities – your abilities, talents, needs, values, and interests – and the lifestyle you want to live.

QLD Local Government

www.logoapp.com.au/asp/jobsqld.asp

www.jobsearch.gov.au/CareerQuiz/careerquiz.aspx - Career Quiz

Completing this checklist will aid you in finding out what types of work you like the most, and will only take a few minutes to complete.

www.humanmetrics.com

According to the Jung / Myer-Briggs typology all people can be classified using four criteria: extroversion – introversion; sensing – intuition; thinking – feeling; judging – perceiving. Knowing your typology may help you to identify your life style in general and with respect to specific fields of activity. You will also obtain a list of the most suitable career choices based on your personality.

www.assessment.com – Find your Future

Identify the personal motivations that point to career success and satisfaction.

www.jsearch.com/jshome2a.html

Are you ready and prepared to make a job change? Evaluate your jobsearch skills.

<http://web.tickle.com/channel/career> – Career Personality Test

This test will pinpoint your workplace strengths and direct you to a profession that best compliments your unique personality.

www.self-directed-search.com

Discover the careers that best match your interests.

www.advisorteam.org/ (Kiersy Personality Sorter)

You will be matched with your career interest and learn to better understand yourself.

www.psychometrics.com

At psychometrics.com you will find tests related to individual development, career development and personal development.

www.queendom.com

Whatever your dreams, Queendom's career tests can help you learn more about success, leadership, aptitudes and more to see if you're on the right path, or perhaps suggest an alternate route.

careerconnection
University of the Sunshine Coast, Student Services
Building J (G.04A)
Ph: + 61 7 5456 5038
e-mail: careerconnection@usc.edu.au