

Definitions

Please refer to the University's Glossary of Terms for policies and procedures. Terms and definitions identified below are specific to these procedures and are critical to its effectiveness:

Acquisition refers to taking legal possession and ownership of an artwork through purchase, gift, bequest, commission, donation, transfer or exchange.

Art Collection/Collection refers to the recognised holdings of artworks acquired by the University officially known as the USC Art Collection.

Artwork/s refers to all cultural material including but not limited to paintings, drawings, prints, photographs, sculpture, ceramics, textiles, artists' books, artefacts, video art and installation art.

Deaccession is the process of de-registering an accessioned object from a collection and amending the documentation relating to that object.

Disposal is the physical removal of an object from an organisation by a process decided upon by the collections or acquisitions committee.

Loan is a temporary physical transfer of an artwork from the Art Collection to a public institution such as an art gallery or museum over a specified period of time and where there is no transfer of ownership.

Provenance is the place or origin; the history of ownership of an object, especially the records and documents authenticating such and object or its history of ownership.

1. Purpose of procedures

These procedures provide a framework for the management of the University of the Sunshine Coast Art Collection.

2. Acquisition of artworks

2.1 All artworks proposed for acquisition to the USC Art Collection must be reviewed for recommendation by the Vice-Chancellor's Art Advisory Committee (VCAAC) prior to acquisition.

2.2 The Manager, USC Art Gallery will prepare an Art Acquisition Proposal for submission to the VCAAC for consideration. This should present an assessment of the artwork and statement of significance to the USC Art Collection and address Criteria for acquisition as set out in the USC Art Collection – Operational Policy.

2.3 Recommendations for artworks valued over $5,000 must be approved by the Vice-Chancellor and President prior to acquisition.

2.4 The following also applies when evaluating a proposed acquisition:

2.4.1 Provenance; clear legal title is required for all artworks prior to acquisition;

2.4.2 Any management and resource implications of accepting loans, gifts, donations or purchases. i.e. ensuring there is adequate display, storage, conservation provisions in place to accept the artwork.

2.5 Only the Manager, USC Art Gallery on behalf of the VCAAC has the authority to reserve artworks and/or make offer to purchase artworks on behalf of the University.

2.6 Artworks recommended by the VCAAC and approved by the Vice-Chancellor and President will be accessioned into the USC Art Collection.

2.7 Gifts/donations to the USC Art Collection will be valued by an accredited valuer.

2.8 Gifts/donations to the USC Art Collection are to be reported to Director, Development.

3. Display of artworks

3.1 Display spaces must meet minimum security and environmental standards as assessed by the Manager, USC Art Gallery. Loan requests will be made through the USC Art Gallery and every effort will be made to accommodate requests, however, the Manager, USC Art Gallery reserves the right to locate artworks in the Art Collection where deemed appropriate for their safe keeping.
