1. What is this course about?

1.1 Description
This course introduces different genres within creative non-fiction writing, including: the tradition of the great essayists; travel writing; nature writing, ‘science’ writing; historical fiction; and memoir, biography and autobiography. In addition, the notion of fraudulence is explored in terms of the Australian literary landscape. Concepts such as verisimilitude, believability, and persuasion are explored, as are the lines between the real and the constructed. The course examines the key roles of objective research and subjective identity in the construction of writing.

1.2 Field trips, WIL placements or activities required by professional accreditation

Assessment 1: Close reading and English expression quizzes and short answer questions

<table>

</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Product:</td>
<td>Quiz/zes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Format:</td>
<td>This assessment is in academic format. You will submit responses to a series of multiple choice questions AND short answer prompts in response to questions concerning the prescribed texts and what constitutes formal English Literary analysis (essay structure, expression, discourse, punctuation). The quizzes and paragraphs will be accessed and submitted via Blackboard. For ideas on what constitutes close critical reading see the extracts on textual analysis as method in the assessment section under Blackboard. Ensure you download the criteria sheet and use this as a guide. You will be expected to analyse some of the devices used non-fiction writers and present argument on the text’s meaning / significance in paragraph responses. If you read critical sources as part of your preparation, ensure you reference in the short answer section of your submission. Under no circumstances are you to copy another student’s material.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Criteria:</td>
<td>• Organise textual analysis in clear, concise, and accurate written forms. • Construct sophisticated and persuasive arguments. • Integrate feedback into your writing and learning process.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Assessment Task 2: Group Oral and Tutorial Engagement

| Goal: | This task is designed to provide you a way to test textual analysis skills in performative forms through collaborative team work and learning. It will also give you opportunity to trial ideas to advance learning in collaborative settings. |
Product: Oral

Format: This assessment is in academic format. There is opportunity for your engaging oral presentation to simulate industry/professional scenarios.

Group Oral: An engaging group work presentation of no more than 15 minutes with 5 minutes extra for questions from the tutorial.

In groups of two (ideally), you will present a creative and engaging group oral presentation. Groups will be formed in your first tutorial. Your oral presentation will introduce the class to one of the text studied and its relationship to its genre.

The group must present a persuasive argument with a clear position on the topic for that week. The group’s argument must complete the following phrase in an innovative way:

The text/s studied this week demonstrates that the non-fiction form of [insert relevant genre, ie personal essay, travel writing, nature writing, science writing, autobiography, biography, historical narrative] can be used to explore [insert group’s argument on the text].

All group members must fully participate in both preparation for, and presentation of, the assessment task. All group members receive the same grade, pending evidence of equal participation in the synthesised final product.

You must submit a list of references and make clear where these were used during the presentation.

Tutorial Engagement:

You are to develop a reading journal with entries on each week’s text/s and take that to each tutorial. Tutors will ask you to draw on this preparation in discussion and group activities and will ask to see your reading journals at points. You will be graded on the basis of your weekly verbal engagement with in-class learning activities. That engagement should demonstrate preparation and valuing of other’s ideas.

Criteria:

- Explain, describe, question and analyse the conventions within a non-fiction genre.
- Collaborate with the work of others and work well in teams to support the collective learning of the group.
- Conduct literary research. Locating and applying relevant literary criticism and theory
- Construct sophisticated and persuasive arguments.
- Organise textual analysis in clear, concise, and accurate oral forms.

Assessment Task 3: Major Essay or Creative Piece

Goal: This task is designed to give you opportunity to develop, synthesis and demonstrate your understanding of a non-fiction genre and present critical reading and research skills.

Product: Essay

Format: This assessment is in academic format (either formal essay or creative form).

In class in week 12 or 13 you will submit a neatly written draft of your introductory paragraph or essay planning to your tutor. You will respond to feedback from this interaction in your final product.

You will write:

a) A formal research essay using textual analysis. For options on questions please see Blackboard OR
b) A short creative exemplar of one the genres studied, but one that presents a sophisticated argument beyond the delivery of information, is grounded in research and may demonstrate understanding of conventions via, exploration and replication of those conventions and/or challenge and innovation of them.

Note you cannot choose science writing unless approved by Course Coordinator. If you choose this option you must include a short 500 word exegetical research statement. For more information on this option see Blackboard.

It is crucial that you do NOT simply describe a text or re-tell its story – you must analyse/critique. Your response MUST use literary devices and understanding of genre as evidence for arguments or as exemplar in creative artefact depending on your choice of assessment. You MUST not cover a text you have covered CLOSELY in Assignment 1 OR 2.

9. How are risks managed in this course?

Health and safety risks for this course have been assessed as low. It is your responsibility as a student to review course material, search online, discuss with lecturers and peers, and understand the health and safety risks associated with your specific course of study. It is also your responsibility to familiarise yourself with the University’s general health and safety principles by reviewing the online Health Safety and Wellbeing training module for students, and following the instructions of the University staff.
10. What administrative information is relevant to this course?

10.1 Assessment: Academic Integrity
Academic integrity is the ethical standard of university participation. It ensures that students graduate as a result of proving they are competent in their discipline. This is integral in maintaining the value of academic qualifications. Each industry has expectations and standards of the skills and knowledge within that discipline and these are reflected in assessment.

Academic integrity means that you do not engage in any activity that is considered to be academic fraud; including plagiarism, collusion or outsourcing any part of any assessment item to any other person. You are expected to be honest and ethical by completing all work yourself and indicating in your work which ideas and information were developed by you and which were taken from others. You cannot provide your assessment work to others. You are also expected to provide evidence of wide and critical reading, usually by using appropriate academic references.

In order to minimise incidents of academic fraud, this course may require that some of its assessment tasks, when submitted to Blackboard, are electronically checked through SafeAssign. This software allows for text comparisons to be made between your submitted assessment item and all other work that SafeAssign has access to.

10.2 Assessment: Additional requirements
Eligibility for Supplementary Assessment
Your eligibility for supplementary assessment in a course is dependent of the following conditions applying:
   a) The final mark is in the percentage range 47% to 49.4%
   b) The course is graded using the Standard Grading scale
   c) You have not failed an assessment task in the course due to academic misconduct

10.3 Assessment: Submission penalties
Late submission of assessment tasks will be penalised at the following maximum rate:
   • 5% (of the assessment task’s identified value) per day for the first two days from the date identified as the due date for the assessment task.
   • 10% (of the assessment task’s identified value) for the third day
   • 20% (of the assessment task’s identified value) for the fourth day and subsequent days up to and including seven days from the date identified as the due date for the assessment task.
   • A result of zero is awarded for an assessment task submitted after seven days from the date identified as the due date for the assessment task.

Weekdays and weekends are included in the calculation of days late.
To request an extension, you must contact your Course Coordinator and supply the required documentation to negotiate an outcome.

10.4 Study help
In the first instance, you should contact your tutor, then the Course Coordinator. Additional assistance is provided to all students through Academic Skills Advisers. To book an appointment or find a drop-in session go to Student Hub.
Contact Student Central for further assistance: +61 7 5430 2890 or studentcentral@usc.edu.au

10.5 Wellbeing Services
Student Wellbeing Support Staff are available to assist on a wide range of personal, academic, social and psychological matters to foster positive mental health and wellbeing for your success. Student Wellbeing is comprised of professionally qualified staff in counselling, health and disability Services.
Ability Advisers ensure equal access to all aspects of university life. If your studies are affected by a disability, mental health issue, learning disorder, injury or illness, or you are a primary carer for someone with a disability, AccessAbility Services can provide assistance, advocacy and reasonable academic adjustments. To book an appointment with either service go to Student Hub, email studentwellbeing@usc.edu.au or accessibility@usc.edu.au or call 07 5430 1226
