

Academic Dress - Managerial Policy

1. Purpose of policy

This policy sets out the specifications and standards for academic dress for all members of the USC community. Academic dress, also known as regalia, is worn for all USC graduation ceremonies. Academic dress may also be worn at other formal university events at the discretion of the Vice-Chancellor and President.

2. Policy scope and application

The policy covers Council members, officers of the University, recipients of honorary awards, graduates and graduands of the USC.

Unless otherwise specified, staff involved in graduation ceremonies and/or academic processions should wear the academic dress appropriate to their own degree.

3. Definitions

Please refer to the University's Glossary of Terms for policies and procedures. Terms and definitions identified below are specific to these procedures and are critical to its effectiveness:

B.C.C. refers to the British Colour Council numbering system, as described in the British Colour Council Dictionary of Colour Standards, 2nd edition, 1951 cloth traditionally means fabric made of wool, but cloth made of other materials, such as Rayon or recycled plastics, may be substituted where appropriate

trencher cap means a mortarboard

6.1 Pre-2012 Academic Dress

A graduate who has been admitted to an award at USC prior to January 2012 when this policy was first introduced, may continue to wear the academic dress and colours as prescribed at the time of their admission to the award, if they so wish.

6.2 Award Colours

With the exception of the Doctor of Philosophy, each academic award of the University will be allocated a designated hood or stole colour determined by the academic award Field of Education (FoE) and as approved by Academic Board.

Designated colours are:

FIELD OF EDUCATION	HOOD / STOLE COLOUR
01 – Natural and Physical Sciences 05 – Agriculture, Environmental and Related Studies	Violet (B.C.C 179)
02 – Information Technology 08 – Management and Commerce	Academic Green (B.C.C 203)
03 – Engineering and Related Technologies	Spectrum Orange (B.C.C 57)
06 - Health	White (B.C.C 1)

04 – Architecture and Building 09 – Society and Culture 10 – Creative Arts	Royal Blue (B.C.C 197)

7. Acknowledgement of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Ancestry

USC has a strong commitment to Australian Reconciliation. To enable Indigenous Australians to have their ancestry recognised during graduation ceremonies, Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students have the option of wearing a stole incorporating the colours of the respective flags at their ceremony (red, black and Saffron for Aboriginal students and/or blue, green and white for Torres Strait Islander students – refer to <http://www.dpmc.gov.au/government/australian-national-symbols/australian-flags>). This will be in addition to wearing the hood and/or stole required for their degree.
