Definitions

Please refer to the University's Glossary of Terms for policies and procedures. Terms and definitions identified below are specific to these procedures and are critical to its effectiveness:

The Panel means the HDR Scholarship Selection Panel, selected by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) to assess and rank applications for HDR Scholarships by order of merit.

HDR Scholarship means any financial support awarded by a competitive process to a student undertaking a higher degree by research (HDR). This includes both USC Research Scholarships and Research Training Program (RTP) Scholarships.

1. Purpose of procedures

These procedures are intended to implement the Scholarships, Bursaries and Prizes – Governing Policy and the Research Training Program Scholarships – Operational Policy, and also apply to other HDR Scholarships at the university.

2. Procedures

2.1 Application and Selection

2.1.1 The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) will set an application closing date. Complete applications received on or before the closing date will be considered. Late applications and or supporting documentation will not be considered.

2.1.2 Applicants address each of the eligibility and selection criteria by attaching supporting documentary evidence to their HDR Scholarship application form. Applicants are responsible for providing all relevant documentation in support of their application.

2.1.3 Eligible applications will be forwarded to the relevant School for academic assessment against the selection criteria. For information on the Eligibility and Selection criteria, refer to the relevant HDR Scholarship advertisement on the USC website.

2.1.5 A HDR Scholarships Selection Panel (the Panel) will be appointed by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) to consider applications for all HDR Scholarships. The Panel will place each application that has been accepted by the School in order of merit according to their ranking as outlined in the Selection of Candidates for HDR Scholarships - Guidelines, and will prepare an Order of Merit List for the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation) for consider.

2.1.6 The Order of Merit list is ratified by the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation). Once an order of merit list has been ratified, changes will only be made in response to a decision regarding a review or appeal, as indicated in section 2.4, or when finalising provisional grades.

2.1.7 The Order of Merit list is confidential and distribution limited at the discretion of the Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation). The Deputy Vice-Chancellor (Research and Innovation), reserves the right to use discretion in the allocation of any scholarships including the number of scholarships offered each year within the limits of available funding.

2.1.8 The Graduate Research Office will advise all applicants in writing of the outcome of their application for a HDR Scholarship as soon as possible after the decision.

2.1.9 Letters of offer will include specific scholarship inclusions and estimated combined annual value, and will be accompanied by the relevant Scholarship Conditions.

2.2 Acceptance

2.2.1 Successful applicants must return advice regarding their acceptance of the HDR Scholarship offer by the response to offer due date (normally within one month of offer). Applicants who do not respond by the due date forfeit their HDR Scholarship offer and an offer will be made to the next applicant on the Order of Merit list.

2.2.2 Successful applicants may request a single deferment of commencement. The application for deferral must be reviewed by the relevant Head of School and where applicable, USC International, to allow appropriate reconsideration of the availability of resources required for the program.
