

ROAD SAFETY TIPS

Parents

- Try to spread your Learner's supervised practice over as long a period as possible.
- Remember it takes a while for the young driver to learn what is important to look at, and where to look, when driving.
- Talk about different travel options for your Learner. Options are important for when your Learner passes the driving test and can drive on a Provisional license.

MORE INFORMATION

Dr Bridie Scott-Parker
NHMRC Research Fellow
Adolescent Risk Research Unit (ARRU)
University of the Sunshine Coast
Tel: 07 5456 5844 | Email: bscottpa@usc.edu.au

usc.edu.au | Rise, and shine.